PURPOSE OF THE SPECIAL ISSUE

This special issue aims to improve our understanding on firm's financial decision in the setting of Brazil. Corporate finance provides a look at the decision making process for corporations to maximize firm value. It also considers research in financial intermediation and financial institutions. We encourage thoughtful analyses that explore innovative descriptive results or shock-based methods for credible causal inference in corporate finance.

THEMES AND TOPICS

We welcome theoretical and empirical contributions on topics including, but not limited to:

- Corporate capital structure
- Corporate investment (capital investment, labor investment, R&D),
- Corporate financing (debt, IPO, SEO, payout policies)
- Corporate governance
- M&A
- Risk management
- Private Equity and Venture Capital
- Working capital management
- Law and finance
- Accounting and Finance
